

RV dump station

The RV sewer disposal site is across the street from the campground. From the parking lot at the pool, turn onto High Street heading north (or take a right). Take first left (look for structure pictured on the right). The dump station is just north of this structure. There is a hose there and a sign indicating it is the RV dump site.

